1.0 National Cardiovascular Data Registry (NCDR) Clinical Quality Coach Physician Dashboard

The NCDR Clinical Quality Coach Practice Dashboard is a practice level solution that assists practice administrators in managing physicians' licensure status, medical board certifications, Continuing Medical Education (CME) credits and other qualifications to support claims administration and credentialing efforts. The Practice Dashboard allows administrators to track all their physicians' certifications and credentials in one place, through an intuitive sortable dashboard view. For physicians with the Clinical Quality Coach application, administrators are also able to track physicians' Maintenance of Certification activities (or Clinical Quality Activities) conducted in the app. Leveraging the data and resources of the ACC and NCDR, the Practice Dashboard requires minimal data entry, automatically generating physician profiles and transcripts.
